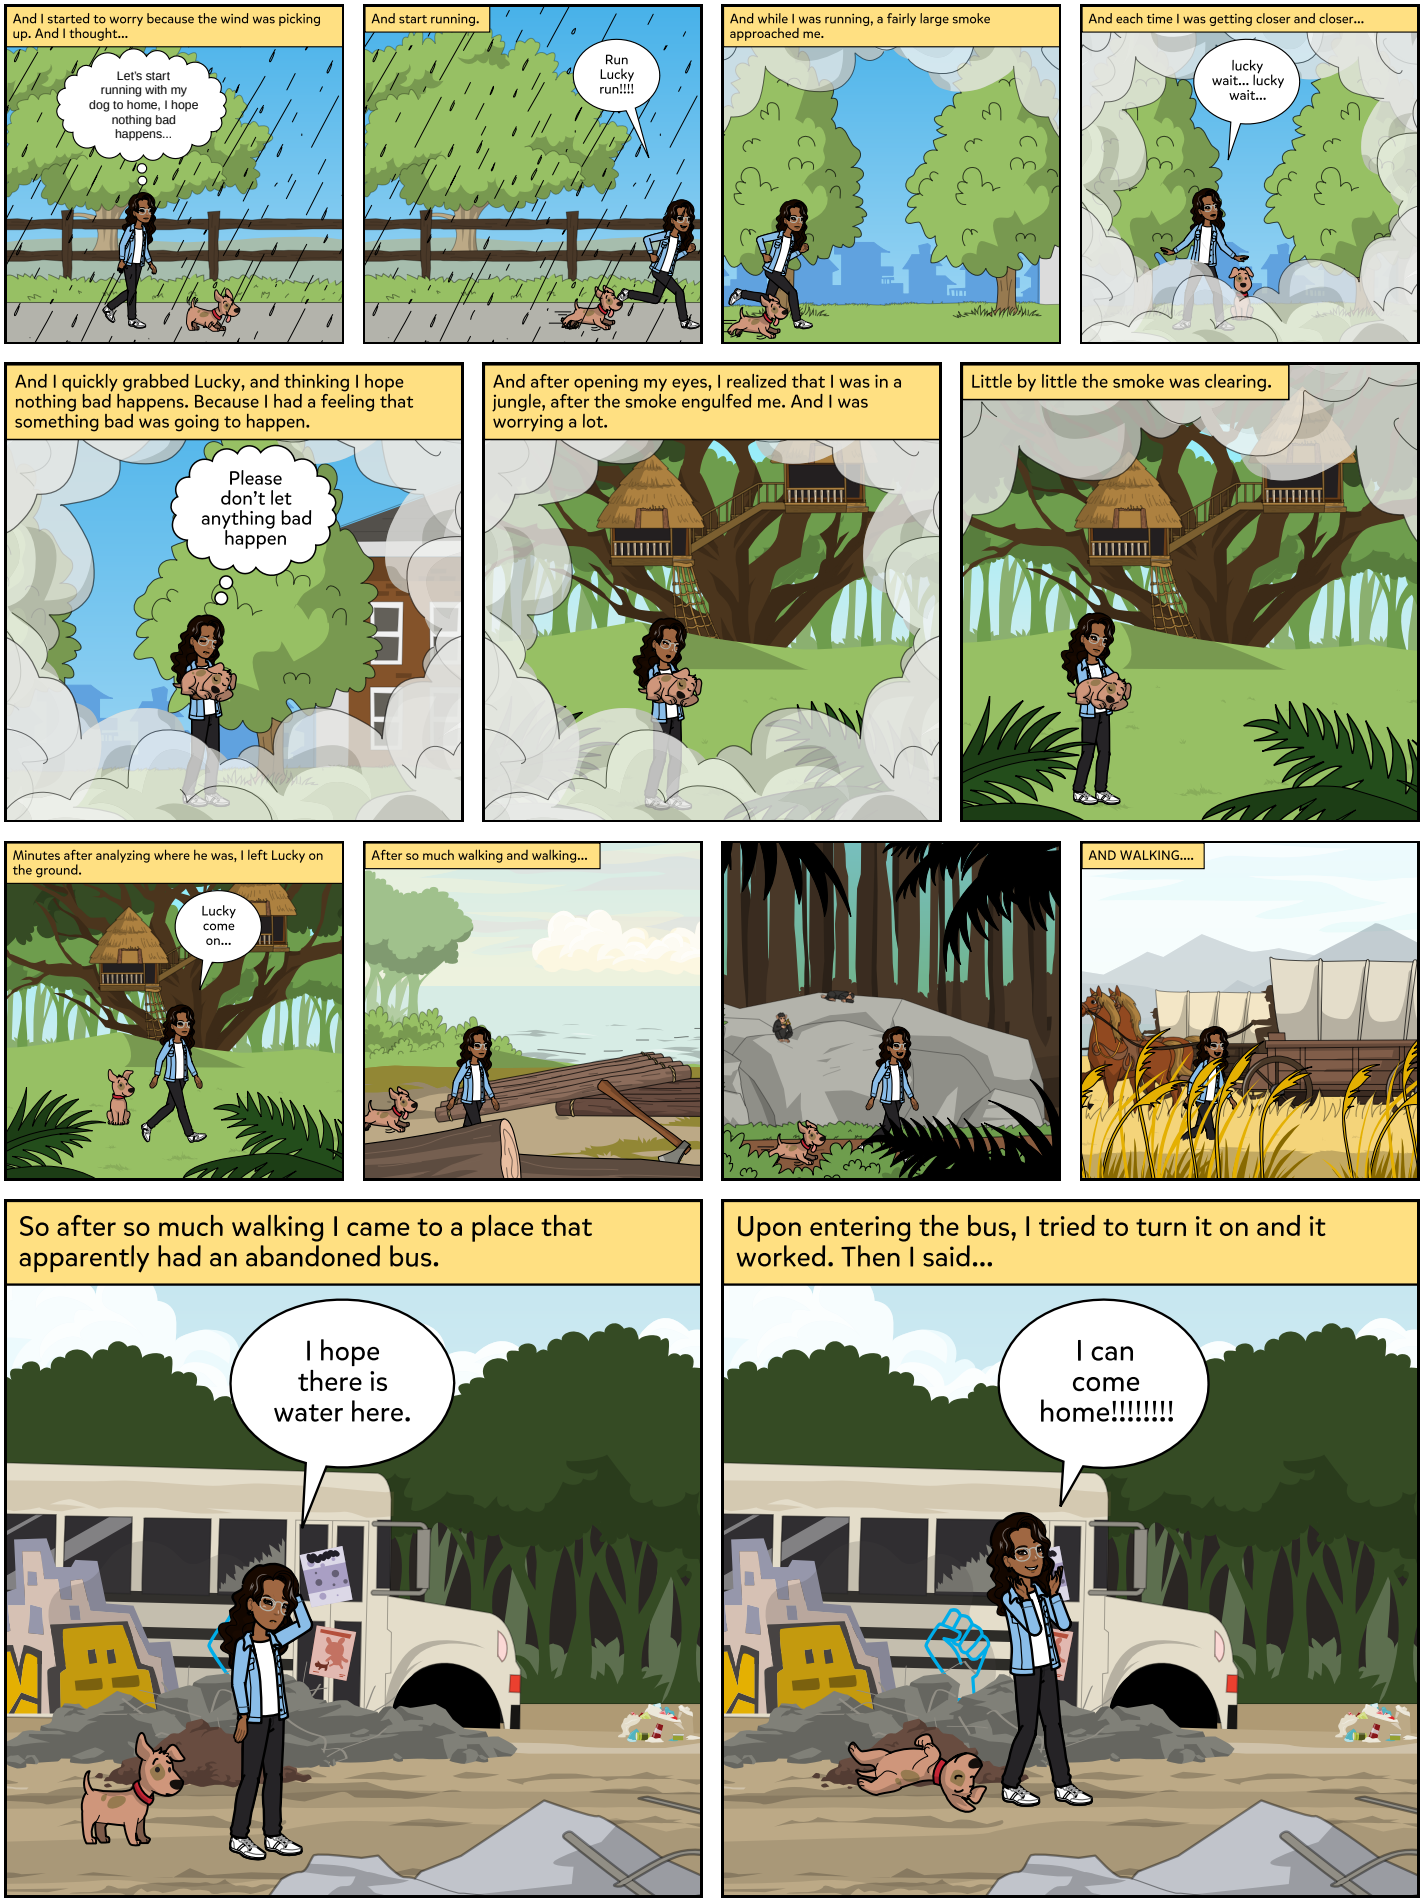
problems

By Angelina



And I started to worry because the wind was picking up. And I thought...
Let's start running with my dog to home, I hope nothing bad happens...
And start running.
Run Lucky run!!!!
And while I was running, a fairly large smoke approached me.
And each time I was getting closer and closer...
lucky wait... lucky wait...
And I quickly grabbed Lucky, and thinking I hope nothing bad happens. Because I had a feeling that something bad was going to happen.
Please don't let anything bad happen
And after opening my eyes, I realized that I was in a jungle, after the smoke engulfed me. And I was worrying a lot.
Little by little the smoke was clearing.
Minutes after analyzing where he was, I left Lucky on the ground.
Lucky come on...
After so much walking and walking...
AND WALKING....
So after so much walking I came to a place that apparently had an abandoned bus.
I hope there is water here.
Upon entering the bus, I tried to turn it on and it worked. Then I said...
I can come home!!!!!!!!

But there were two problems...
1. I couldn't get the bus out because it was on top of a lot of mud 2. I didn't know which direction to take.
So what I did was stay there for hours until I got an idea.
After so many hours on the bus...
WHAT THE HELL HAPPENED?
